

Brevort

By Lois Movolson

I'm hoping for summer in September, as we surely haven't had warm temperatures typical of July and August.

The population of Brevort has increased by one! Jessie Marie Rogers has given birth to her son, Wilder Jack Rogers, August 1 st Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey. He weighed 8 pounds, 13 ounces. Mother and baby are both doing fine.

Kirk and Tara Stanford and their children, Gunnar and Chloe, have returned home to Lee's Summit, Missouri, after vacationing in the Brevort area. Tara is the daughter of John and Carol Watson, and the granddaughter of the late Rueben and Mildred Gustafson.

Two van loads of Gustafson siblings and cousins enjoyed the Michael Bolton concert in Sault St. Marie Thursday evening.

John and Pega Kennedy attended the 70th birthday celebration party for John's brother, Jerry, in Cheboygan Saturday, July 25.

Visiting in the area this week is Yvette Miswick's daughter, Susie. Along with her are Janet Miswick Corrigan's children and their dad, Bob Corrigan. Joining them are Ed and Charlene Miswick Mechelich's children. Bob spent an afternoon last week visiting with Dave Movolson.

Matt and Julie Mead have returned to their home in Salem, Massachusetts, after enjoying their vacation in St. Ignace and Brevort with Julie's mother, Beatrice (nee Gustafson) and stepfather, John Zak. Several friends joined them here from California, New York, and Ohio. Matt and Julie had a good time showing them all the local sights in the area such as Split Rock, Ozark Road, Trout Lake, and Tahquamenon Falls.

Kari and Jamal Kzar's new son is Andrew, not Owen, and he weighed 7 pounds, not 11 pounds. So sorry for the earlier misinformation.

Mary Carney came home

Monday from Munson Medical Center in Traverse City after procedures to correct an operation well over a year ago. Welcome home, Mary.

Joe and Sharon Chalmers and friends attended the Garrison Keillor fundraiser show at the Opera House in Cheboygan last weekend. Gayle Lamareaux and I also enjoyed almost three hours of stories and songs in typical Keillor fashion. Gayle and I joined many others for the "After Glow" party, where we could meet Garrison. He inscribed a book for me, and we told him of our Lutheran church founded by the Alanders in 1910. Mr. Keillor donated all of his time, equipment, and travel expenses to raise money for the Cheboygan Opera House, as he has for other smaller communities that have been hard hit by cuts in funding for the arts.

Charlie and Helen Dowd of Niceville, Florida, are visiting family and friends in the area. They are staying with Helen's sister, Dot Glashaw, and spending time with Jim and Ann Dyer.

Lara, Kristi, and Morgan Gustafson were guests at the home of Lynn, Karl, and Lauren Yoder, celebrating the third birthday of Carson Yoder.

This weekend Lara and the girls picked blueberries with Fred and Mary Beth Jasmund.

Anne Hagen Andersen of Bemidji, Minnesota, is at the family home in Brevort. She called on Warren and Kim Hagen last week.

Thora and Jack Shepard journeyed to Fairview to the Northern Michigan Mennonite Quilt Show and came home with two quilts. The Shepards stayed at the home of Albert and Rhonda Mundt in Mio. Bob Ouelette, Marie Clare, and Addy Lawry of Detroit joined the group in Mio and then proceeded on to Brevort to stay with Jack and Thora for a week. They will divide their time between Trout Lake and Brevort. Ken and Sharon Smith have opened the Brevort Motel just east of Brevort. They plan to operate into the fall season.

Linda Gibb has undergone a couple of medical procedures and is awaiting results from tests. The cedar waxwings were eating fish-flies that were caught in the shrubs in front of the Chapel Hill Motel as we talked Monday morning; I hope they don't notice my currants.

Karen and Al Southland had discovered a bottle with a note in it early this summer. Karen did write to the sender, but received no reply. As the writer lives near the Southlands' downstate home, Karen said maybe she would give the note writer a call.

Paul and Val Kobayashi have returned to Honolulu, Hawaii, after vacationing with Lorie Quigley and Joe Stewart on Shore Road. While we lamented the weather, Paul and Val said they actually liked it, as the weather in Hawaii is basically the same year around. Dave fried whitefish at Joe and Lorie's home Friday evening. Anne Andersen joined us. After the meal, Val gave us a slide show of all the places they went while in the area.

Dave and Charlotte DeShetler of Wildwood Lane have had a lot of company this summer. Pete the peacock entertained the children, to their great delight. He would follow wherever they went.

Mike and Heather Hebron and their children, J.P. and Ava, have vacationed at their condo this past week.

Happy birthday to Carson Yoder on August 11, Mark Spencer, the Younger on August 12, Dot Glashaw on August 14, Larry Lasleyon August 15, Clare Kalbflesch and Claris Snyder on August 17, Shari Baron, August 17. Happy anniversary to Mike and Lara Gustafson on August 17.

Engadine Consolidated Schools

by Angie McArthur Superintendent

HOME OF THE EAGLES • KNOWLEDGE LETS YOU SOAR

We are fortunate to have many active volunteers who contribute to the success of our school and our students. Sean Bennett, Richard Pershinske and Rich Ozanich cleaned up and restored our outdoor volleyball pit. It is greatly improved!

We know the school year is fast approaching because our sports seasons are beginning. Football begins Monday, August 10, with a parent meeting at 4:30 p.m. and then practice at 6 p.m. For more information, contact Coach Lester Livermore. Volleyball season begins Wednesday, August 12, with a practice. Contact Coach Kathy Miller for more information.

The Engadine Eagles will play the Carsonville-Port Sanilac Tigers in an exhibition game of eight-man football. This will re-introduce eight-man football to Michigan. The game is scheduled for Saturday, August 29, at 7 p.m. at the Frank A. Salzeider Community Recreation Area in Engadine. If you would like to volunteer to help at this game or any other school activity, give us a call at (906) 477-6313. We would appreciate your help.

High school schedules were mailed last week. For schedule changes, contact Rae Klobucher at the school. Drop-and-adds will be Monday, August 17, and Tuesday, August 18. Call the school with any questions.

Enjoy the rest of the summer! Don't forget to read.
