Youth Movement for Lady Bays Basketball Team

After losing six players to graduation and with just five returnees, Coach Ray Bell in his fourth season will have to depend on underclassmen to fill the squad for the 2005 season.

Seniors playing for the final time in the blue and white uniforms are Molly McIntyre, Katey Kingsbury, and P.J. Hopper at guards, Hanna Hope at forward/guard, and junior Carrie Atkins at forward.

First-year varsity players include juniors Oliva Searcy, Miranda Rousseau, and Crystal Church at forwards, Megan Parish and Ashley Lothrop at guards, and Marissa Lawson at center along with freshmen Sydney Wilson at forward/center and Kelly Graham at guard/forward.

"We lack size, but this group is very athletic," said Coach Bell. "With the inexperience we might start out slow, but this team wants to improve and

Time together will make the Brimley squad better as the season goes on. Team camps during the summer were the start for this Bays team.

Coach Bell and new assistant coach Ann Leonard will gear the Bays toward the Eastern Upper Peninsula Conference season against Cedarville, Pickford, Engadine, and DeTour and non-league contests with Boyne Falls, St. Basil, Rudyard, Big Bay de Noc, Newberry, Bawating, and Marion.

Returning Standouts Give a Boost to Brimley Lineup

Brian Reattoir, in his 10th season at Brimley as head coach, will have the luxury of 12 returnees to build his 2005 team.

The Bays will prepare for the Eastern Upper Peninsula schedule with the largest group of returning players among the league teams.

Leading the way for the blue and white in their final season are captains Jeff Graham at wing and corner, Travis Lynn at quarterback and safety, Derick Parish at offensive and defensive tackle, and Joe Quinn at guard and linebacker.

Remaining seniors returning are Darick Bowen at wing-back and defensive end, Nick Friez at tackle, Ben Jacobs at guard and tackle, Tom Watchhorn at center and defensive tackle, Ben Thompson at halfback and corner, and Chris York at guard and defensive end, with junior Frank St.

George at halfback and linebacker and sophomore Jerrod Dillon at halfback and corner return for the second varsity season.

First-year varsity players are juniors Mike Graham at end and linebacker, Adam Jacobs at end and safety, Preston Parish at end and defensive end, Steve Phillips at halfback and corner, and Seth Schofield at offensive and defensive end.

"The experience is a big plus," said Coach Reattoir. "It will be easier in practice working on our offense and defense with this group of talented athletes, we need to cut down on our penalties and that means we need to be more disciplined."

The Bays will battle for the league championship along with Pickford, Cedarville, and Engadine and face a strong non-conference schedule that includes Powers-North Central, St. Basil, Rapid River, Mid Peninsula, and Lincoln-Alcona.
