

Wedding

Jamie Lang, Kenny Mills

Jamie Lang and Kenny Mills of Troy were married October 1, 2005, at A Special Memory Wedding Chapel in Las Vegas, Nevada.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents, Sue Dionne of St. Ignace and Tim Lang of Green Bay, Wisconsin. Sarah Dionne, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Best man was Robert Brady, a friend of the groom.

A reception was held in Limericks Steakhouse at Fitzgerald's Casino. The bride and groom were joined in Las Vegas by 24 friends and family members.

The bride is a 1994 graduate of LaSalle High School and was graduated with a master's degree from Oakland University. She is employed as a high school mathematics teacher for the Troy School District.

The groom is the son of Ken and Sharon Mills of West Bloomfield. He is a 1994 graduate of West Bloomfield High School and is employed as a deputy with

Cesilee Dean To Compete in National Contest

Cesilee Dean of St. Ignace will compete in the America's Rising Stars national karaoke semi-finals Thursday, November 10, at Seymour, Tennessee. The winner is awarded a $50,000 recording contract.

Miss Dean, 23, qualified by winning a karaoke contest at Kewadin Shores Casino in St. Ignace earlier this year. In June, she qualified for the semi-finals after finishing as one of the top six singers in the quarter-finals, where 16 contestants competed and were judged on vocal ability, stage presence, crowd response, and overall performance.

The contest splits singers into categories of their choice, either pop or country; Miss Dean is in the pop category.

Miss Dean, a student at Lake Superior State University, is the daughter of Tonee Therrian of St. Ignace and Timothy Dean of Madison, Wisconsin. She is a 2000 graduate of LaSalle High School.
