Masonic Lodge To Host Open House

St. Ignace Lodge No. 369 F. & A.M. will hold a public open house Tuesday, September 12, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The St. Ignace Masonic Lodge was established in 1885 and was located in the Ogle Building on the north end of the business district. It was later moved to the corner of State and Truckey streets on the second floor of the Mulcrone Building. The building was destroyed by fire on Easter Sunday, April 10, 1966.

The Lodge purchased the property and built a new building, which was dedicated December 6, 1968.

The lodge is at 12 North State Street in St. Ignace.

The Lodge has promoted and participated in the activities of the community and surrounding areas as well as in state and national programs.
