

*Continued from page 19

Ronald Ray Kaunisto

Parents: Ron and Genny Kaunisto
 Siblings: Jeremy, 14, Ellen, 10, Amy, 5.
 Educational or occupational goal: Become a civil engineer; attend Michigan Technological University in the fall.

20, Michaela, 14, Mariah, 10.
 Educational or occupational goal: Registered nurse; study at LSSU.
 Hobbies and interests: Movies, listening to music.

Adam Povey

Parents: Robert Povey and Lisa Moran
 Siblings: Robert Povey II, 20, Elise Lucas, 19, Gavin Povey, 11.

Educational or occupational goal: Engineering, LSSU or Michigan Technological University.
 Hobbies and interests: Hunting, fishing.

Paige Sabatine

Parents: Tracy and Ray Kopitsch; Andy Sabatine
 Siblings: Mady Gustafson, 12, Emma Gustafson, 10, and Raegen Kopitsch, 1.
 Educational or occupational goal: Business degree, University of Michigan.

School activities and organizations: Co-president of WOW, yearbook.
 Hobbies and interests: Reading, skiing, and spending time with friends.
 State of education in the future: "I believe knowledge is the key to success."

Jacinda TenEyck

Parents: Brenda and Michael TenEyck
 Sibling: Kaitlyn TenEyck, 13.
 Educational or occupational goal: Bachelor's degree in Applied Biology, Ferris State University.

School activities and organizations: WOW, yearbook editor, Student Council vice president, YAC, YVC, Big Brother/Big Sisters mentor, United Way, Hospice, Executive Committee.
 Hobbies and interests: Volunteering, reading, working with people.
 State of education in the future: "Education is vital right now; without a proper education, one can't get a job or succeed in the real world. It is important to stress this on the younger generation."

Cassandra Warner

Parents: Larry and Candace Warner
 Siblings: Jillian Warner 15, Jacob Warner, 10.
 Educational or occupational goal: English professor and writer; undecided on university, but considering Hope College, NWU, or U of M.

School activities and organizations: WOW, Student Council, drama, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Music, piano, reading, writing, singing, church plays, cooking, sewing, foreign languages (French and Spanish).
 State of education in the future: "Because of all the technological advances in the world today, schools are going to have to adapt/produce citizens able to obtain work in a changing world."

Kaitlan Ware

Parents: Kevin and Robbyn Ware
 Siblings: Chris O'Brien, 30, a graduate of Sault High in 1994.

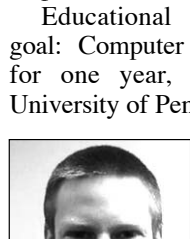

Educational or occupational goal: Undecided, Michigan State or Grand Valley.
 School activities and organizations: WOW, YVC, Student Council, varsity softball, Executive Committee, National Honor Society.

 Hobbies and interests: Softball, reading volunteering at the Boys and Girls Club, listening to music.
 State of education in the future: "Education is becoming more and more restricted. Kids are learning things that were harder at an earlier age. Curriculum is becoming stricter."

Kevin White

Parents: Mary Anne and Geoffrey Ramer
 Siblings: Bryan, 26, Jayne, 19, Hope, 10 and Lauren, 8.

Educational or occupational goal: Computer animator; LSSU for one year, then transfer to University of Pennsylvania.
 School activities and organizations: Soccer, yearbook, drama.
 Hobbies and interests: Computers, guitar.
 State of education in the future: "Steadily improving."

Travis White

Parents: Debby and Dennis White
 Sibling: Kayleigh, 13.

Educational or occupational goal: Nanotechnological engineer, Michigan Technological University.
 School activities and organizations: First Robotics, Young Advisory committee, Big Brothers-Big Sisters, Peer mentoring, Student Council, National Honor Society
 Hobbies and interests: Fishing, figure skating, drafting, guitar, writing.

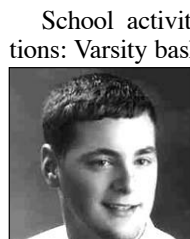

State of education in the future: "I feel today's education is adequate, although it need to continue to adapt to today's latest information and technology."

Fred Williams

Parents: Gina and Fred Williams
 Siblings: Chris, 24, Matt, 14, Grace, 11.

Educational or occupational goal: Attend LSSU then Wayne State University; be graduated from medical school.

School activities and organizations: Varsity basketball manager.
 Hobbies and interests: Basketball, golf, bowling.
 State of education in the future: "I believe students will only get smarter and be able to operate new technology at a young age."

Ryan Yacuone

Parents: Kurt and Yvonne Yacuone
 Educational or occupational goal: Professional golf management, Ferris State University.

School activities and organizations: Sault High Golf Team.
 Hobbies and interests: golf, bowling.
 State of education in the future: "Schools need more money than they get now. It's the best investment."

Chad Young

Parents: Debra Roslund Young and Simon Young
 Sibling: Sean Young, 22, 2003 Sault High graduate.

Educational or occupational goal: Earn degree, start a family, and travel the world; university undecided.
 School activities and organizations: Sault High football and baseball, volunteer for the medical benefit dinner.
 Hobbies and interests: Sports and such as football and baseball, dodgeball, history and government, family, and friends.

State of education in the future: "Education is the key to the future. Kids in the U.S. have been blessed with a free, effective system of education."

Caroline Zinser

Parents: Virginia and Brian Zinser
 Sibling: Jack Zinser, 15.
 Educational or occupational goal: Undecided; Pursue higher education, advanced degree.

School activities and organizations: Student Council, yearbook, Creative Cafe, Junior Rotarians, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Piano 12 years, ballet 10 years, bassoon 7 years, sailing, and skiing.
 State of education in the future: "Students benefit greatly from exposure to the arts in primary years. By developing education with strong fundamentals in music, visual arts, and performance, stronger test scores [and] better learners can be produced."

Lisa Baier

Parents: Gary and Chris Baier
 Siblings: Aimee Baier, 14, Jay Baier, 12.

Educational or occupational goal: Bachelor's degree in computer engineering, Michigan Technological University.

School activities and organizations: Business Professionals of America, National Honor Society, Honor Roll.
 Hobbies and interests: Reading, computers, and snowboarding.
 State of education in the future: "I feel that technology is important - computers are the future."

Thomas Brewster

Parents: Paul and Nancy Brewster,
 Siblings: Patrick, 15, Gregory, 12.

Educational or occupational goal: Medical field study at MSU.
 School activities and organizations: Sault High swim team, band.
 Hobbies and interests: Eagle Scout.

State of education in the future: "Hard work, long wait, but worth it in the end."

Alex Briglio

Parents: Pam and Gino Briglio
 Siblings: Amanda, 20, attending MSU.

Educational or occupational goal: Want to be a journalist or involved in theater; MSU.
 School activities and organizations: Student Council, drama, W O W , Executive Committee, yearbook.
 Hobbies and interests: Write, listen to music, and spend time with friends. "I also love being part of drama, love all parts of theater."

State of education in the future: "I think education will become more challenging, but it will give kids more incentive to try harder to do well."

Stuart Chipman

Parent: Pam Chipman
 Siblings: Katie Chipman, 20, Gordon Anderson, 25, Sally Anderson, 27.

Educational or occupational goal: Bachelor's degree; Hillsdale, WMU, or Saginaw Valley.
 School activities and organizations: Cross country, basketball, track, National Honor Society, Junior Rotarian.
 Hobbies and interests: Literature.

State of education in the future: "It is nice to see high schools moving to challenge students in a way that better prepares us for our future."

Ben An

Parent: Haiyan Zhao
 Educational or occupational goal: Career in the medical field.

School activities and organizations: Robotics Team.
 Hobbies and interests: Computers, tennis, soccer.
 State of education in the future: "I'd be telling my grandchildren, 'Look, when I was your age, [I] used to go to school five days a week and six hours per day.'"

Sarah Shubert

Parents: Ross and Roberta Shubert
 Sibling: Katie Shubert, 16, sophomore at Sault High.

Educational or occupational goal: Graduate from U of M with pharmacy doctorate; attend either U of M or Ferris State University.
 School activities and organizations: Student Council president, yearbook editor, Executive Committee, WOW, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Volunteering at the Boys and Girls Club, working out, reading, baking.

State of education in the future: "It is apparent that standards of education are getting harder and school will be more difficult for students and teachers."

Tahquamenon Area Schools

Katelyn Marie Potocnik

Parents: Jeff and Kathy Potocnik
 Sibling: Travis

Educational or occupational goal: Physics teacher or editor at a publishing company; Michigan State University.
 School activities and organizations: Student Council, school play, basketball, softball, seventh grade camp counselor, Honor Roll, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Sports, singing, reading, writing.

Chelsea G. Burton

Parents: Jim and Dawn Burton
 Sibling: Lauren, Newberry High School sophomore

Educational or occupational goal: "I hope to obtain a career that utilizes both my liking for mathematics and my love of the arts. I am enrolled at Northern Michigan University and have been invited to join the honors program there."
 School activities and organizations: Honor Roll, National Society of High School Scholars, National Honor Roll, Who's Who Among American High School Students, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Reading, arts and crafts, badminton, bicycling.

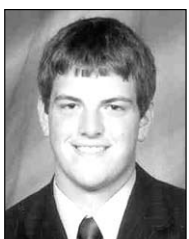

Jonathan Bontrager

Parents: Karen and Stan Bontrager
 Sibling: Laura

Educational or occupational goal: Attend college; university undecided.

School activities and organizations: Student Council, powerlifting, football, track, church youth group, Honor Roll, National Honor Society.
 Hobbies and interests: Football, dogsledding, camping, fishing.

Kayla Lahti

Parents: Kathy and Paul Lahti
 Educational or occupational goal: "I want to do something that makes me happy, but I also want to use whatever skills I have to help people. I plan to attend Northern Michigan University in the fall."

School activities and organizations: Drama, forensics, Quiz Bowl, school play, Friends of the Library, Honor Roll, National Honor Society.

 Hobbies and interests: Read, write, cook, computer, photography.

Ashely O'Dell

Parents: Cynthia Roberts and Lawrence O'Dell
 Siblings: Two sisters, Gabriel and Katie, and a brother, Brian.

Educational or occupational goal: "I plan to become a successful business owner and be my own boss. I plan to attend Lake Superior State University and get a degree in business management."
 Hobbies and interests: Reading, writing, computers.

Brittany Houser

Parents: Cindy and Randy Houser
 Siblings: Randall and Matthew.

Educational or occupational goal: "I plan to pursue a career in advertising and market strategy. Eventually, I want to open a small chain of hotels. I plan to attend college at either Grand Valley State University or Central Michigan University and major in marketing."
 School activities and organizations: Quiz Bowl, National Honor Society, Honor Roll, Luce County Fair Board.
 Hobbies and interests: Photography, design, reading.

Andrea Ronquist

Parents: Stanley and Melissa
 Siblings: Brian and Rachel.

Educational or occupational goal: "I am undecided at this point, but will probably end up with some type of communication degree and maybe use it to become a journalist. I plan to be part of the residential college at University of Michigan."
 School activities and organizations: Key Club, cross country, volleyball, track, softball, school play, community drama, Honor Roll.

Hobbies and interests: Soccer, skiing, drama.

Emma Dake

Parents: Bruce and Lynn Dake.
 Siblings: Hannah, Molly, Derek.

Educational or occupational goal: To attend either Central Michigan University or Northern Michigan University to pursue a degree in secondary education in mathematics.
 School activities and organizations: Honor Roll, National Honor Society, church youth group, church choir, basketball, volleyball, softball, Key Club.

Hobbies and interests: Girl Scouts.

Whitefish Township School

Katie Rowley

Parents: Patrick and Honey May Rowley

Siblings: Christine, 23, Northern Michigan University graduate living in Sacramento, California; Honey Marie, 21, attending LSSU; John "JP", 16, student.

Educational or occupational goal: Pharmacy/science research; Michigan State University

School activities and organizations: Varsity soccer and volleyball, Student Council, National Honor Society, participated in sea lamprey research project.
 Hobbies and interests: Volleyball, soccer, reading.

State of education in the future: "I believe that education is moving in the right direction; more funding is needed, though. Tougher standards and higher expectations lead to positive results."