Nine Are Graduated From Gros Cap School

By Paul Gingras

Before an ebony backdrop adorned with silver stars, nine eighth-grade students took the stage at Gros Cap School and were graduated Tuesday, May 22. Standing before a crowd of parents, teachers, mentors, and family members, they said good-bye to their kindergarten-through-eighth grade district, which lies on the edge of Lake Michigan in Moran Township. Several expressed genuine excitement at the prospect of entering high school and noted that small class sizes were their favorite aspect of Gros Cap.

Certificates of promotion were presented to Angel Ballard, Cole Christiansen, Brent Duffiney, Shaun Horn, Corey Nelson, Austin St. Louis, Cody Swagger, Lucas Thurston, and Alexander Wright. Lead teacher Monica Silet and speech and language pathologist Mary Christiansen presented the certificates.

The silver stars also decorated the podium from which Mr. Thurston welcomed the public to the ceremony.

"It has been a great nine years and a wonderful experience," he said, noting that Gros Cap is a good place for students to begin their education.

The theme of "place" ran throughout the pictures and speeches presented at the event. The public watched a picture presentation that documented each graduate's time at Gros Cap, set to nostalgic music.

Mrs. Christiansen took the stage to present the President's Academic Fitness Awards. To be recognized, students had to achieve a grade point average of 3.5 throughout their career at Gros Cap and score 85% or higher on the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) test.

Students who received the award included Lucas Thurston, Cody Swagger, Corey Nelson, Cole Christiansen, Austin St. Louis, and Shaun Horn.

"It appears you young men have set a standard; now it's up to you to keep up the good work," Mrs.
