

113 Teams Compete in St. Ignace's Red Hacker

By David Latva

The St. Ignace Sports Boosters hosted 113 teams from across the state during the annual Red Hacker Basketball Tournament held at the parking lots of the Little Bear East Arena and Community Center Saturday, July 14.

An early morning rainstorm postponed the start of the tournament for an hour, and basketball action began at 9 a.m.

The annual basketball tournament for youths of all ages benefits the entire athletic program at LaSalle High School.

St. Ignace Youth Soccer Begins July 24

Games for St. Ignace youth soccer will begin Tuesday, July 24, at the LaSalle High School field. Nineteen teams, with players ranging from ages four to 14, will participate in the six-week program. Eighteen teams played last year.

For the first time in several years, there will be a 12- to 14-year-old division, which will field three teams.

Games will be held each Tuesday and Thursday through August 30.

Game time for each age division is as follows:

Ages 4 to 6: 5:15 p.m. to 5:50 p.m.

Ages 7 to 9: 6 p.m. to 6:45 p.m.

Ages 10 to 11: 7 p.m. to 7:55 p.m.

Ages 12 to 14: 7 p.m. to 7:55 p.m.

Team photographs will be taken at the games Thursday, July 26.

The soccer league is coordinated by the St. Ignace City Recreation Department.

Road Race Benefits Athletic Programs at DeTour High

Bonnie Hughes (right) presents a $1,500 check to DeTour High School Athletic Director David Miller and Raiders cross country runner Teryn Miller.

The third annual DeTour Village 5k run Wednesday, July 4, drew 131 runners and raised $1,500 for the athletic program at DeTour High School.

Bonnie Hughes, the organizer for the event this year, presented a check to David Miller, the school's athletic director, and Teryn Miller, an all-state cross country runner. She placed ninth overall in Division 3 during the Upper Peninsula State Finals in Houghton during the fall 2006.

The 2007 cross country team earned more than $800 from sponsorships during the race. The school staff looks forward to this year's cross country season, as it will be the first time DeTour will field a team in more than 25 years.

Craig and Traci Miller will be the race directors next year.

Autism Group To Hold Fundraiser

Mackinac Parents for Autistic Children, a local autism support group, will hold a can and bottle drive Wednesday, July 18, and a bake sale at Glen's Market in St. Ignace Saturday, July 28, to raise funds for a trip to the Autism Walk Relay at the Detroit Zoo Sunday, September 30.

Cans and bottles can be dropped off at Glen's Market from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. July 18. People can also contact Lana Lennington at 643-6576 to donate.

The autism group's next meeting will be at Zion Lutheran Church in St. Ignace Thursday, September 13.
