Court Reports

The following dispositions are from 92nd District Court in St. Ignace Tuesday, July 10, and Wednesday, July 11, Judge Beth Gibson presiding. Arresting agencies are in parentheses. The court does not distinguish between jail time to be served immediately and jail sentences that are suspended.

• Amy Hamersmith, 36, of Stryker, Ohio, pleaded guilty to operating while intoxicated, and was assessed a fine of $1,100, must spend 93 days in jail, and one month probation. (Michigan State Police)

• Casey Livingston, 28, of St. Ignace, pleaded guilty to use of marijuana and operating while visibly impaired, and was assessed a fine of $1,500, must spend 93 days in jail, and six months probation. (Michigan State Police)

• Blake Horsburgh, 19, of Willoughby, Ohio, pleaded guilty to operating while intoxicated. He was assessed a fine of $1,100, must spend 93 days in jail, and six months probation. (Michigan State Police)

• Carla Bourcier, 43, of Manistee, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to Circuit court on one count delivery/manufacture of a controlled substance (narcotic/cocaine) less than 50 grams. (Michigan State Police)

• Stanley Gugin, 34, of St. Ignace, was jailed for 25 days on probation violation.

• Juan Aguilar, 26, of Menominee, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to Circuit Court on one count receiving and concealing stolen property $1,000 or more but less than $20,000, one count operating while intoxicated, and one count driving while under the influence. (Mackinac County Sheriff's Department)

For the Record...

• The photograph caption describing the St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church group in St. Ignace's Fourth of July parade, which appeared on page three in the July 12 issue, included inaccuracies. Father Rey Garcia, pictured in the foreground, is the priest at Ste. Anne's Catholic Church on Mackinac Island, and not at the St. Ignace church. Also, the statue being carried in the parade is not that of Father Marquette, but rather Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556), who founded the Society of Jesus (the members are known as Jesuits). Father Marquette named the city of St. Ignace in his honor. The new priest for the church, Father Al Mott, is pictured on the left in the photograph, but is not identified.

• The page 1 story "Clark Township Annual Meeting: Board Considers Pay Hike, Hears Public Suggestions" in the July 12 issue contained an editing error.

The story reported "annual salaries were proposed to increase by 3.24% (or $72.08) plus $75 per meeting." It should have been stated that the proposal referred only to the two Clark Township trustees, but not the supervisor, clerk, or treasurer.
