For the Record...

St. Ignace Mayor Paul Grondin's pay for attending city meetings during June totaled $300, not $580, as the city reported in the July 12 issue of The St. Ignace News.

Mayor Grondin was paid $160 ($80 per council meeting) for two city council meetings and $140 ($70 per committee meeting or special event) for two committee meetings during June.

The mayor is paid $70 for each committee meeting or special event he attends and receives $80 for each city council meeting he attends. Council members are paid $70 for regular meetings and $60 for committee meetings or gatherings at which the person is representing the city.

Overall, Mayor Grondin attended nine meetings or events in June, but requested not to be paid for five of them, the Visitors Bureau's special events meeting June 4, Recreation Advisory Committee meeting June 13, Mayor Exchange Day with the Village of Mackinaw City June 19 and 20, Antiques on the Bay dinner June 22, and the Antique Auto Show Parade June 29.
