For the Record...

Although it was announced by the Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians January 7 that Dan Grondin of St. Ignace had been appointed the interim chief of tribal police, Mr. Grondin did not, in fact, accept that position, and it remains vacant, Cory Wilson of the tribal communications department told The St. Ignace News January 11. The appointment was announced by the tribe while Mr. Grondin was on vacation. The appointment was reported on page 3 of the January 10 issue.

Chimney Fire Damages St. Ignace Home

Build-up of creosote in the wood stove chimney of Donald Paquin's home on 319 South Marley Street in St. Ignace is the likely cause of a fire that caused extensive damage to his home around 3 p.m. Wednesday, January 9. No one was injured. Firefighters battled the blaze for about an hour, said St. Ignace

Fire Chief John "Bucky" Robinson.

Firefighters were also called to an unauthorized brush fire on West Road in Evergreen Shores Tuesday, January 8. It was reported by a person who spotted the fire, which was almost extinguished when firefighters arrived. No damage was caused to the area.

City Council Will Meet at Library Jan. 21

The St. Ignace City Council will hold its next meeting at the St. Ignace Public Library at 8 p.m. Monday, January 21.

Council meetings are scheduled to be held at the conference room of Little Bear East Arena and Community Center Monday, February 18, at 8 p.m. and at the LaSalle High School cafeteria at 1:30 p.m. Monday, March 17.

Council meetings are usually held in the council chambers on the top floor of City Hall. Council meets every first and third Monday of each month at 8 p.m. Meetings are open to the public.
