

St. Ignace

By Miriam Blair

643-7994

Mackinac Islanders are still taking advantage of the ice bridge to St. Ignace.

Bev Kammers is hospitalized at Northern Michigan Regional Hospital in Petoskey. She has volunteered many hours in the past months at our Hope Chest resale store.

Word has been received that Chris Blosswick is a patient in a Grand Rapids hospital, where he is undergoing tests.

Karen and Bob Sparks of Detroit were visitors in St. Ignace this past week.

Pete Everson reports that the initial mailing of invitations and information for the second St. Ignace All Class Community Reunion have been sent out, and St. Ignace Community Foundation committee members suggest that if you haven't received an invitation, that you are likely not on a mailing list or have an incorrect address. The reunion will include all community members, even those who were not graduated from LaSalle High, and graduates of the Ursuline Academy.

If you have not received an invitation, the committee would like to include you. Please notify members in one of the three following ways to be added to the mailing list:

1) E-mail Laurie Steiner at lsteiner@eup.k12.mi.us or Pete Everson at peverson@eup.k12.mi.us.

2) Call Kathy Marshall at St. Ignace Schools at 643-8145.

3) Visit the St. Ignace Area Schools Web site at <http://stignace.eup.k12.mi.us> and click on

Construction Mechanic Second Class (CM2) Thomas Wilk replaces a blown oil pan gasket on a generator at Camp Shelby, Mississippi. Enrolled in active duty with the Navy, CM2 Wilk is assigned to Alfa Company, Naval Mobile Construction Battalion (NMCB) 133, based in Gulfport, Mississippi. Construction mechanics are responsible for field repairs on large equipment. CM2 Wilk will deploy this summer with the USNS Mercy, a hospital ship, conducting humanitarian missions in the Pacific Theater. Seabees from NMCB 133 will be assigned to perform humanitarian construction on shore. He is the son of Mary Wilk and Randy Stempki of St. Ignace. (Photograph by Lt. Steven Voris)

The event, to be held at Little Bear East Arena Friday, July 25, will feature food by Varsity Catering, a cash bar, silent auction of St. Ignace items, and plenty of opportunities for visiting. Cost of the event is $25 per person, with any proceeds directed to the Alumni Fund of the St. Ignace

Community Foundation.

Although the mailing list is currently at about 3,500 names, more are missing. Those who are able to assist with additions and/or corrections to their graduating class list are asked to contact the Reunion Committee at the above contact sites.

Students from Rudyard Area Schools have won awards for their art at several juried art shows this year, reports Richard Guimond, the high school art teacher, including seniors Kaela Dobson, Rochelle McDowell, Brian Bedell, Rachel Browning, and Angela St. Andrew; juniors David Hoolsema, Celyne McMillan, Kacey Lewis, and D.J. Holloway; sophomores Heather Vincent and Dannie Brabant; freshman Leah Wallis; first-grade student Novi Price, and fifth-grade student Trista Miller.

Students participated in shows at Alberta House Gallery in Sault Ste. Marie, Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City, and a Michigan Art Education Association show in Lansing.

The Rudyard Bulldogs varsity baseball team will be waiting tables at the Varsity Grill to collect donations for the team the first Wednesday of every month, reports Keith Clegg, owner of the restaurant.

All tips will go for necessities for the baseball season.

There also may be a name change going on in April for the Varsity Grill. Keith is talking about changing the name back to Pure Country, its original name.

CJ Knutsen, a varsity wrestler, deserves congratulations for making the state finals March 6 at the Palace of Auburn Hills. Although he lost both matches, we are all proud of his accomplishments. CJ has broken seven school records, including: most take downs, most wins, most team points, most pins, most technical falls, two-point near falls, and three-point near falls.

Congratulations to all of the students who made the U.P. Academic Swim Team, maintaining a 3.75 grade point average during the swim season: Caitlyn Mudroch, Spencer Dugan and Lucas Meehan, freshmen, and Katelyn Meehan, senior.

Earning places in the U.P. Finals individual swim results were Meagan Mayer, with eighth place and fourth place finishes, and Lucas Meehan, with two eighth place finishes.

In relay events, the Rudyard Bulldogs team of Lucas Meehan, Brady Burby, Spencer Dugan, and Wade Thibert earned a fourth place finish and a seventh place finish. The Bulldogs team of Eryn Reed, Meagan Mayer, Jazmine Wilkins, and Emily Markstrom earned an eighth place finish.

Breakfast with the Easter bunny will be from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Saturday, March 22, at the Rudyard Community Center.

Photographs and games will be included, with an Easter egg scramble at 11 a.m.

The Easter breakfast hosted at Kinross Recreation Center March 16 a was a huge success. The Easter bunny was dressed to impress and was handing out bunnies to all of the kids.

Bulldogs Pancake Breakfast March 22

The Rudyard Bulldogs boys basketball team will hold its annual pancake breakfast that is open to the public, from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. Saturday, March 22, at Rudyard High School, followed by awards for the varsity and junior varsity boys teams.
