• Nathan Marsack, 21, of Harrison, pleaded guilty to operating a snowmobile while intoxicated, and was assessed a fine of $1,169 and six months probation. (Mackinac Island Police)

• Krystal Robach, 26, of St. Ignace, pleaded guilty to selling, furnishing alcohol to minors, and was assessed a fine of $250, 30 days in jail, and nine months probation. She also must pay $220 in attorney fees. (Michigan State Police)

• Sherry Briggs, 29, of Moran, pleaded guilty to attempted resisting and obstructing, and was assessed a fine of $250, 365 days in jail, six months probation, and $220 in attorney fees. (Mackinac County Sheriff's Department)

• Lance Kerridge, 27, of Engadine, pleaded guilty to disorderly person, and was assessed a fine of $250, 15 days in jail, and six months probation. (Michigan State Police)

• Brian Webb, 27, of Gould City, pleaded guilty to operating while intoxicated (second offense), and was assessed a fine of $500 and 120 days in jail. (Michigan State Police)

For the Record

In the May 8 issue, a page two postcard caption with the article "First National Bank Marks 120 Years in Business" incorrectly states the bank built a red brick building in the late 1940s, when the article and caption should have read the building was constructed about 1910.
