This time of the year we celebrate high school graduation with gatherings of friends, neighbors, family, and lots of food. It was such a time at Erin Barthelemy's home Sunday, May 25. It was good to see people we haven't seen all winter, plus new puppies such as Maggie Mae, recently acquired by Jody and Mike Gustafson.

Items for the Hope Chest resale store in St. Ignace will be accepted during the Saturday, May 31, collection of debris at the old township hall on Schoolhouse Road in Brevort. Anyone in the county may bring good, useable articles for the Hope Chest. A trailer will be available to collect donations. Volunteers will monitor the items donated. Collection of all other disposables for the dumpsters is open to Moran Township residents only. Hours are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Shawn and Scott Miller of Akron, Ohio, announce the birth of a daughter, Alysene Renee, Wednesday, May 14. Congratulations to her parents, her brother, grandparents, Mark and Brenda Spencer, and great-grandparents, Mark and Joan Spencer.

Our newest neighbors, Dave and Charlotte DeShetler, have arrived at their new home on Wildwood Lane after spending the winter in a warmer place. Dave and Charlotte plan to live in the area well into late fall. We welcome them to our community.

Graduation ceremonies took place at LaSalle High School Friday, May 23. May all of the graduates have a bright future.

Students at St. Ignace Area Schools will finish the school year this week.

St. Ignace was a busy town last weekend, May 24 and May 25, as the Yooper Motorcycle Show and mud run events drew crowds of visitors, many on motorcycles.

Many relatives gathered for an annual picnic at Gros Cap School

Friday, May 23, as families shared favorite dishes, potluck-style.

Norma Emery of Moran traveled to Englewood, Florida, to greet her great-grandson, Vance Alan Shea, and family. She is happy to be back home, along with her friendly dog, Klondike.

Leland Pawley of Gulliver visited in St. Ignace en route to Petoskey Friday, May 23, for an appointment.

A young man at 89, he keeps busy on his centennial farm daily, and often enjoys 10 miles of four-wheeling.

A reminder of the Brevort Walleye Derby Saturday, May 31, from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. The awards ceremony will follow at King's Fish Market in Moran, along with a fish fry.

Happy anniversary to Hilda and Jim Ryerse June 7.

The Touch of Craft shop, on the Arnold Line dock, will open its doors Monday, June 9. Hours are 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Crafters 55 years old and older, who are interested in joining in, may deliver items to the shop Thursday, June 5, and Friday, June 6.

MACKINAC ISLAND NEWS

Congratulations to Emily St. Onge on the birth of a daughter, Jane Elizabeth, born Thursday, May 8, at Munson Medical Center in Traverse City, weighing 9 pounds, 7 ounces, and measuring 20 inches in length. Proud grandparents are John and Ann St. Onge of Mackinac.

On a recent television program called "Midwest Classic Golf," Grand Hotel's Little Jewel and the Woods golf courses were featured. The photography of Mackinac was beautiful. It was great publicity for the Island.

Carol Rearick is back on Mackinac and is enjoying her lovely home on Lakeshore Drive. Her husband, Doug, is playing in a golf tournament and will arrive on Mackinac at a later date.

At Mission Point Resort, thousands of tulips in an array of colors are bursting into bloom. It's a beautiful sight.

Happy birthday to Jim Horn and Kim Kolatski May 26. Hope you both had a great day.

On Market Street, in the garden of the Andrew McGreevy residence, the beautiful tulips in vibrant shades of spring colors are appearing, much to the delight of all the visitors passing by. At Grand Hotel, thousands of tulips were in bloom last weekend to welcome the large Knights of Columbus Convention Saturday, May 24. It is truly springtime on Mackinac.

Camille Bobinsky's mother, Camille Falcone, celebrated her birthday May 27.

Thursday afternoon, May 15, at the Village Inn, Central Savings Bank and Mazzuli Insurance Agency of Munising hosted an appreciation party. It was a great gathering of good food, fun, laughter, and prizes.

Bill and Ann Taylor of Delta, Ohio, frequent guests of the Windermere Hotel, celebrated their wedding anniversary May 19. Island friends send special greetings.

Happy birthday to Jim Pettit May 27. Hope you had a great day.

Jennifer Blosswick and Brenda Bunker hosted a baby shower for Holly Schultz Tuesday, May 13. Holly received a wonderful variety of gifts.

Wally Peck of Manistique has returned to Mackinac for the season. He is employed at the Chippewa Hotel.

Ben Nye, of Great Turtle Toys, was flying a wonderful display of kites Saturday, May 17, on Windermere Point. Each kite was dancing in the breeze off the Straits of Mackinac. It truly was a spectacular sight.

Keith Leverton and Clark Blosswick will celebrate their birthdays May 29. Enjoy your day.

The famous Jessie's Chuckwagon restaurant is open for the season. Welcome back to Jessie Doud.

John and Lois Findley of Lafayette, Indiana, have arrived on Mackinac, and they're preparing their Small Point Bed and Breakfast for the season. Nice to see them back on the Island.

Our good friend, Jamie Bynoe, will celebrate his birthday May 30. Jamie is a big Detroit Red Wings fan, so he is thrilled that his team is playing for the Stanley Cup.

Congratulations to Craig Bunker and Holly Schultz on the birth of their daughter, Lakelynn Louise, born Monday, May 19, at Cheboygan Memorial Hospital. She weighed 7 pounds, 12 ounces, and measured 24 inches in length at birth. Proud grandparents are Brenda Bunker and Clay Fuller. Great-grandparents are Ike and Elaine Bunker.

Mike and Wendy Young enjoyed a few days at their lovely home on the West Bluff. Mike attended the Mackinac Island Community Foundation meeting Saturday morning, May 17.

Happy birthday May 30 to our good friend, Sally North of St. Ignace, and Janis Early of Mackinac. Have a wonderful day.

Joan Barch has arrived at her home in Woodbluff. Nice to see her back on the Island.

More lights in the neighborhood! Barbara and Brian Hellis, along with their dog, Rusty, are settled in their cottage on Benjamin Lane. Happy birthday to Brian May 29.

Keith and Mary Ann Hahn of Big Rapids have arrived to assist Bev and Bob Benjamin in their businesses. Nice to see them, back on Mackinac.

Dr. Al Sibinic, D.V.M., is back on Mackinac for the summer months. He is employed by Mackinac Island Carriage Tours. His office is in the Chambers Riding Stable building.

Recent guests of Mike Iles have been his mother, brother, and friends, Cara and Michael Orbeck of Kalamazoo. Cara surprised her husband with a trip to Mackinac
