

Les Cheneaux Library Offers Summer Fun Series July 15

The Summer Fun Series for Children will be offered at the Les Cheneaux Community Library in Cedarville through July. Four sessions will teach art, craft, and game skills to children ages seven through 10. Classes will be from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The classes include "For the Birds" Tuesday, July 15, which will allow participants to make bird feeders and nesting bags.

"Wonderful Weaving" will be offered Wednesday, July 16, and will teach participants the art of weaving as they make a bookmark they can take home.

"Old Fashioned Fun" Tuesday, July 22, will offer the opportunity to play old style games.

"Adventures in Origami" Wednesday, July 23, will teach the ancient art of paper folding.

Classes are $10 each, and the non-refundable class fee must be paid upon enrollment.

Classes fill quickly, so organizers encourage children to enroll as early as possible. Registration forms can be picked up at the library and mailed in with payment, or dropped off at a box in the library.

Parents should plan to pick up their children promptly after the class ends. If a parent makes arrangements for someone else to pick up their child, they must write a permission note authorizing that person to pick up the child.

Contact the Friends of the Les Cheneaux Community Library at 484-2919 to register or send mail to Friends of the Les Cheneaux Community Library, P.O. Box 332, Hessel, Michigan 49745.

Kinross Siblings Give Local Stage-fighting Demonstration

Kinross native Orion Couling returned to the area to teach a stage-fighting workshop and performance at Soo Theatre Project. The two day stage-fighting workshops were Monday, June 30, and Wednesday, July 2, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., and will be performed Saturday, July 5, at 7:30 p.m. at Soo Theatre Project in downtown Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. Couling was joined by his sister, Emily Couling, who is attending Northern Michigan University and studying theater and voice.

Following his graduation, with honors, from Northern Michigan University, Mr. Couling founded Esteem Development Through Greater Expectations (EDGE), is the artistic director of Eudaimonia Professional Theatre and Gymkhana Studios, teaches studio classes in the Chicago area, and works as a fight director with independent films. Mr. Couling is recognized as an associate teacher for dueling arts, and is an advanced actor combatant for the Society of American Fight Directors.

Miss Couling has been in many productions around this area, including with Soo Theatre Project. Among the many productions that she participated in last year, she directed "All I Really Needed to Know I Learned in Kindergarten" and was the lead in "Warrior" performed through Northern Michigan University.

Second Annual Jim Bohn Bike and Hike Is July 6 in Hessel

The second annual Jim Bohn Bike and Hike will be Sunday, July 6, in Hessel, starting at 11 a.m. Registration will begin at 10:30 a.m. at the Islander Bar in Hessel, at 134 Pickford Avenue.

The event was named in memory of Cedarville resident Jim Bohn, father of the bar's owner, Greg Bohn. Last year it raised $5,850 for the Cancer Research Foundation. The goal for the second year is to raise $10,000.

Registration is $25, and includes a commemorative T-shirt and lunch. Participants can ride a bicycle, walk, or run along a five-or 10-kilometer course down Lake Street to Hessel Point Road and back.

Donations can be made directly at www.firstgiving.com/jimbohn-bikeandhike, or by sending checks payable to Cancer Research Foundation, Attention: Event Donations, P.O. Box 50226, Henderson, Nevada 89016-0226.

Call 484-6904 for more information about the event or to register.

Jess Fusco and Ashley Overlock are organizing this year's event, and signed up 42 participants in last year's fundraiser.

Local Students Make Dean's List at Northern Michigan University

Sydney Schroeder of St. Ignace and Brian Meehan of Dafter earned a 4.0 grade point average for the winter 2008 semester at Northern Michigan University, and were named to the dean's list. Other local students named to the dean's list with a 3.25 grade point average or higher are Scott Couillard and Matthew Stelmazek, both of Pickford; Briana Kangas and Jason Povey, both of Rudyard; Brenda Burby, Emily Couling, Kurt Hauswirth, and Matthew Peach, all of Kincheloe; Tiffany Elliot, Molly McIntyre, and Rachel Osbord, all of Brimley, and Daniel Freeborn of Curtis.

Registrations Taken Now for Youth Boating Safety Courses

Boating safety classes for all ages will be offered in Cedarville Thursday, July 10, and Friday, July 11.

People who plan to take the class must register early, because space is limited. Classes will meet from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Clark Township Fire and Ambulance Hall on Meridian Street in Cedarville.

To register, call John Griffin at 484-2022. Participants are asked to enter on the side of the hall facing First National Bank of St. Ignace, Les Cheneaux Branch.

The course is a requirement for people ages 12 to 16 who want a boating license, however, adults are welcome, too. Mackinac County Sheriff Marine Deputy Tom Sherlund will instruct the courses. The Les Cheneaux Islands Association and Mackinac County Sheriff's Department are co-hosting the classes.

Participants who successfully complete the course will receive a free adult-size life jacket from the Les Cheneaux Islands Association.

A second course will be offered Thursday, August 5, and Friday, August 6, at the same time and location. Participants need only attend the July or the August session. They can register at the beginning of the course, but should arrive early to do so.

The Islands Association will also offer an informal, hands-on course for anyone who wants to refresh their boating skills, taught by Cedarville residents Diane Patrick and Mr. Griffin. To schedule a free session, call Mrs. Patrick at 484-5555 or Mr. Griffin at 484-2022.

Bethel Lutheran Church To Host Strawberry Social, Bible School

Bethel Lutheran Church of Cedarville will host its annual strawberry social Tuesday, July 8, from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. Desserts will be served in the fellowship hall or by take-out order. Call (906) 484-2730 to place take-out orders.

Proceeds from the fundraiser will benefit church activities and operations.

Contemporary Christian artist Marty Miller will perform Sunday, July 20, at 11 a.m. at the church, with a cook-out following the performance. A free will offering will be collected.

Vacation Bible School will take place Monday, July 28, through Friday, August 1, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.
