

Mackinac Island

Linda Sue Moskwa, 47, passed away Sunday, August 3, at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, with her family at her side. She fought bravely for eight months, after a lung cancer diagnosis. Her brother, Steve, attended her funeral Thursday, August 7, at Holy Family Catholic Church in Ontonagon. Memorials may be made to Sparrow Hospice Services, 1210 West Saginaw, Lansing, Michigan 48915. Island friends send deepest sympathy to the family.

A Daisy Days fundraiser will benefit the Stella King Scholarship Fund Wednesday, August 20, at the Mackinac Island Post Office, taking place all day.

Sunday, August 10, was a perfectly beautiful summer day on Mackinac, with brilliant warm sunshine and heavenly blue skies as family and friends made their way to Ste. Anne's Church for the 2 p.m. concert, featuring two young ladies of the Island, Peggy Bynoe on the piano and vocalist Carolyn May. The acoustics in the old historic church are the finest, and the music sounded wonderful. Mackinac is proud of Peggy and Carolyn, and everyone enjoyed their talents. Peggy's mother, Judy Bynoe, who is recovering from recent hip surgery, was able to attend the concert. Carolyn's sister, Heather, an accomplished flutist, will also give a concert in two weeks at Ste. Anne's.

Robin and Kelly Dorman celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary August 7, while cruising with members of the Mackinac Island Community Foundation on the Manoojian's Lady Jane. It was truly a delightful evening.

The barn crew at the Mackinac Island Carriage Tour's Big Barn surprised Bob Gillespie Tuesday, August 12, with signs, balloons, and a big cake in celebration of his 80th birthday. Everyone had a great time.

We congratulate Robin Dorman on his recent appointment as executive director of the Mackinac Island Community Foundation.

Happy birthday to Pollyanna Smith and Melinda Porter August 15. I hope you both enjoyed your day.

Brother Jim Boynton, S.J. of Detroit has been assisting Father Rey Garcia at Ste. Anne's during the summer months. He left Wednesday, August 13, to return to his duties in Detroit. Best wishes to Brother Jim from Island friends.

We send best wishes to Donnie Francis, who was transported to Northern Michigan Regional Hospital in Petoskey Tuesday,

A rare sight: The 647-foot-long Arthur Anderson, a member of the U.S. Steel fleet since 1952, was seen passing Mackinac Island on the northeastern side Sunday, August 10. Freighters usually will pass through the Round Island channel, between Mackinac and Round islands, on the south side of Mackinac Island, however, high winds forced the freighter to make the longer trip around the back of Mackinac Island. The Arthur Anderson was the last boat to be in contact with the Edmund Fitzgerald before it sank November 10, 1975. It was also the first to arrive at the scene to search for survivors, but there were none. (Photograph by Candi Dunnigan)

August 12, after suffering a stroke at his home in the Mission. His wife, Gracie, accompanied him to the hospital.

Almeda Bodwin of Manton celebrated her birthday August 16. Hope you had a wonderful day.

Jennifer, David, and Lucas Karhoff of Findlay, Ohio, returned home Monday, August 11, after spending 10 days at their cottage on Bourisaw Lane. Lucas started school Monday, August 18. It was great having you on Mackinac.

The Rt. Rev. Cate Waynick, Episcopal Bishop of Indianapolis, is again vacationing on Mackinac Island with her husband, Larry. She preached and presided at Trinity Church Sunday, August 17, at 10:30 a.m., reflecting on her participation earlier this month at the special Lambeth Conference in London, a gathering held every 10 years, involving all of the bishops in the worldwide Anglican community.

Jack and Dorothy Dehring celebrated their wedding anniversary August 17. Hope you enjoyed your day.

The wonderful display of kites flying from Windermere Point every day is truly a sight to see. There are all different colors, sizes, and shapes floating above the Straits of Mackinac. Ben Nye, owner of Great Turtle Toys, does a remarkable job flying so many kites in the varying winds.

Happy birthday to Austin Ruddle August 18. Hope you had a great day.

Nick and Nancy Drelozios from Muskegon, with their three children, Daniel, Valarie, and Thomas, have been visiting the Island for the past 21 years. The charm of the Island keeps them coming back each year.

The Island artists held a reception

Friday, August 1, at the Mackinac Island Public Library. The honored guest was Marta Olson's mother, Marian Petersen, of Harbor Springs. She had a wonderful time visiting with her many Island friends.

Bruce Goodwin and Joan Fox-Goodwin, with Bruce's cousin, Maeve Croghan and Stew Stewart, hosted a party for friends at the Goodwin's cottage, "Casa Verano," on the West Bluff Wednesday, August 6. The Goodwin children, Alexia and Jordan, entertained their friends on the front lawn. Guests enjoyed singing old songs at the piano, led by Maryllyn Putz on the piano. James Dunnigan tended bar.

In honor of their 25th wedding anniversary, and the 15th year of operation of the Mackinac Island Butterfly House, Bill and Jean Allen entertained friends at a luncheon at the Mackinac Island Yacht Club. It was a wonderful celebration.

Another beautiful ride through the Island was enjoyed Tuesday, August 12, with Buck and Alice Sharrow, where we viewed Grand Hotel, West Bluff cottages, Stonecliffe, Stonebrook, Fort Holmes, and the East Bluff. Along the way, the wildflowers were at their peak, daisies, black-eyed Susans, and yellow buttercups, and let us not forget the wild raspberries. It truly was a million-dollar ride, and my cousin, Virginia Riordan, loved it.

Greg Hokans, chief of development and marketing for Mackinac State Historic Parks, with his two sons, Christian, 17, and Hans, 19, enjoyed a football game at Green Bay, Wisconsin, where they watched the Packers play the Cincinnati Bengals Monday evening, August 11. Mr. Hokans' family has had season tickets to Packers games since 1957, when Lambeau Field was built.

We've had a few picture-perfect U.P. days with warm breezes, bright sunshine, and delightful temperatures. The folks in our tiny towns have been filling up their berry buckets with what has turned out to be a bumper blueberry crop. These are the things great pies and cobblers are made of, classic U.P. treats.

The weekend saw several weddings in the area. Congratulations to Jill oven and Gary Weaver. Jill is the daughter of Jim and the late Mary Frazier Oven. Congratulations to Michelle Spencer and Chris Schroeder. Michelle is the daughter of Jim and Cindy Fisher Spencer of Kinross.

Among the visitors at church Sunday was the former Virginia Johnson, daughter of Hank and Lil of Garnet, and sister to Vern Johnson of Engadine. Elnora Crockett of Willis is spending time at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Kathy and Lester Livermore of Naubinway.

Enjoying a family birthday celebration in honor of Don Goudreau were a few of his children, along with his wife, Dana, Gary, DJ, Andrea, and Laura, and their families. The cake had a train theme in keeping with one of Don's favorite enjoyments, and it was enjoyed by all.

Getting away for a weeks worth of rest and relaxation (with a little hunting and fishing thrown in) were Dale Burgess, Pastor Tim Miller, and Bob Bosman, who were last seen headed for our northern border.

Heading to college are Tristina Browning at Wayne State University, Shauni Rutledge at Jackson Community College, and Jaime Maison at Northern Michigan University. Best of luck to all.

Birthday wishes, a few belated, go to Peggy Benoit August 12, Don Goudrea and Rodney Bigelow August 15, our grandson, Jesse Fosdick August 16, Dylan Formolo and Andrea Everhart August 17, Rick Kerridge August 19, Billy Belonga August 20, Leta Standing and Hana Belonga August 22, Desi Derusha and Drake DeWise August 23.

Anniversary wishes to our neighbors, Ed and Karen Hins, who celebrated August 11, and to Penny and Daryl Browning, and Allan and Laurie Spencer August 19.
