

OBITUARIES

Dale Beaudoin

Dale Beaudoin, 54, of Moran died unexpectedly Wednesday, October 29, 2008, at his home on Charles Moran Road.

He was born in St. Ignace September 12, 1954, to Wilfred "Willie" and Anna Mae (nee Soeltner) Beaudoin.

He was graduated from Rudyard High School and was a member of the Local 1329 Union. Mr. Beaudoin was working on construction of the new hospital in St. Ignace, and had spent the summer working on Mackinac Island.

Mr. Beaudoin was an avid bowler, playing on the Thursday night league in St. Ignace for many years. He was a member of the Brevort Township Fire Department, Moose Lodge #999, and of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Moran.

He married Lucy St. Louis in St. Ignace May 5, 1975.

He was a family man, an animal lover, a hunter, and fisherman, friends said. Mr. Beaudoin was a deer hunter at Camp Flowing Well for many years. He was also a team player at euchre.

He is survived by his wife, Lucy; three children, Martin,

Tonya, and Martina, all at home; two brothers and their families, James and Lissa Beaudoin of Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin, and Tom and Cindy Beaudoin of Gibraltar; four sisters and their families; Judie and Jim Sherman of Moshem, Tennessee, Wilma Litzner of Brevort Lake, Sandy and Richard White of Gibraltar, and Yvonne and Chuck Fuller of Rudyard. He is also survived by his mother, Anna Beaudoin of Moran, and 17 nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, Wilfred, in 2004, and a brother-in-law, Dwight Litzner.

A memorial was held Tuesday, November 4, at 11 a.m. at Immaculate Conception Church in Moran with Father Allen Mott officiating, assisted by Father Jim Williams, Deacon Don Olmstead, and Deacon Tom McClelland.

Dodson Funeral Home assisted the family with arrangements.

Seth Tamlyn, 19, of St. Ignace, died Tuesday evening, October 28, 2008, at a friend's apartment in Moran Township, as the result of a gunshot wound.

He was born December 19, 1988, in Cheboygan to Steven and JoAnne (nee Kompis) Tamlyn.

Mr. Tamlyn was graduated from LaSalle High School in May 2007. During his school years, he worked at Doc Holle Silver Mountain Ski Hill. In the summers, he worked for Gamble Roofing and Gough Riding Stable on Mackinac Island.

Last winter, Mr. Tamlyn worked for Ryba Marine on the new expansion of Mackinac Island Marina. He currently worked for Jason St. Ouge on Mackinac Island as a painter and drywall.

Mr. Tamlyn enjoyed hunting, snowmobiling, ice fishing, and staying on Bois Blanc Island with his grandfather, Joe Kompis.

He is survived by his father,

Seth Tamlyn

Seth Tamlyn

Steven Tamlyn of St. Ignace; his mother, JoAnne Kompis-Tamlyn of Cedarville; a sister, Sierra, at home; grandparents Margaret Tamlyn of St. Ignace, Joe and Rosemary Kompis of Mackinac Island and St. Ignace, Sue and Dr. Bill Chambers of Mackinac Island, and a special friend, Amber Petersen of Mackinac Island. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Mr. Tamlyn was preceded in death by his grandfather, Norman "Chickie" Tamlyn of St. Ignace, in 1990.

Friends called Sunday, November 2, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. at Dodson Funeral Home in St. Ignace. Mass of Christian burial was Monday, November 3, at 11 a.m. at St. Ignatius Loyola Catholic Church with Father Allen Mott officiating, assisted by Father Jim Williams, Deacon Don Olmstead, and Deacon Tom McClelland.

Pallbearers were Jack Perault, Nathan Tamlyn, Robbie Sayles, Landon Snyder, Eric Cowell, and Darcy Brodeur-Bunker.

Burial will be at Ste. Anne's Cemetery on Mackinac Island.

Memorials may be directed to the Mackinac Island Fire Department, with envelopes available from Dodson Funeral Home.

John Hood

John Hood, 78, of Caffey, died Wednesday, October 29, 2008, at Helen Joy Newberry Hospital, after a six-month illness.

He was born in Munising, May 20, 1930, to Ellis and Gertrude (nee Lewis) Hood. He was one of 16 children.

Mr. Hood married Bernice Struble May 10, 1958, in Trout Lake.

He had been a woodsman all of his life and most recently worked in the woods at age 77 last summer. He loved music, and playing the guitar. He was a member of the Eagles #3701 in Newberry.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Bernice; four children and their families, Alice and Tony Martis of Rexton, Howard and Cheryl Hood of Caffey, William and Kim Hood of Newberry, and Ellis Hood of Rexton; three brothers, Lloyd in Texas, Ellis in Rexton, and Kenneth in Munising; two sisters, Lucille Hood of Constantine, and Helen Browning of Garnet; 12 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Visitation was Saturday, November 1, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at Dodson Funeral Home in St. Ignace. Services followed at 4 p.m. with Deacon Don Olmstead officiating.

Burial will be in Epoufette Cemetery.

Lloyd Boucha

He was a longtime member of Engadine United Methodist Church, where he taught Sunday school to teenagers for many years, a member and past commander of the Boucha-Draves-Raski Veterans of Foreign War Post in Engadine, and a former member of the Engadine Lions Club.

His hobbies included golf, hunting, fishing, berry picking, spending time with his grandchildren, and baking, a hobby he picked up during his retirement years.

In addition to his wife, Mary, Mr. Boucha is survived by three sons and their families, Phillip and Darlene Boucha of Grand Blanc, Gordon and Debbie Boucha of Gaines, and Myron Boucha of Sault Ste. Marie; two daughters and their families, Susan and Chris Rohn of Jasper, Indiana, and Cynthia and Garry Smith of Engadine; a sister, Elsie Fisher of L'Anse; 14 grandchildren, and 15 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Clarence and Alfred, and three sisters, Rita, Erma, and Emma.

Friends may call the Engadine United Methodist Church Wednesday, November 5, from 10 a.m. until services at 11 a.m., with Pastor Sandra Clark officiating.

Interment will take place at Engadine Cemetery.

Veterans graveside services will be provided by the Boucha-Draves-Raski VFW Post of Engadine.

Beaulieu Funeral Home in Newberry is assisting the family with arrangements.

Joseph Carnesi

Joseph Carnesi, 70, of Kincheloe, died Thursday, October 30, 2008, at Northern Michigan Regional Hospital in Petoskey.

He was born to Thomas and Rose (nee Ferry) Carnesi in Manhattan, New York, September 15, 1938, and lived in California from the age of five until last year, when he and his wife moved to Kincheloe.

Mr. Carnesi served with the United States Army in Korea, and in civilian life was an electrical contractor.

He loved the outdoors and enjoyed boating, four-wheeling, snowmobiling, and skiing. He also loved his dogs, Prince and Babygirl, who were his constant companions.

Mr. Carnesi is survived by his wife, Shelia (nee Mullen); two daughters, Charlene Carnesi of Sidney, Ohio, and Kathy and Victor Lee of Huntington Beach, California; one son, Joseph Carl Carnesi of Fullerton, California; three brothers, Thomas and Dee Carnesi Jr. of Fullerton, Richard and Marta Carnesi of Placentia, California, and Robert and Arlene Carnesi of Fullerton; four grandchildren, Gregory, Dora, Autumn, and Anthony; eight nieces and nephews, Thomass III, Linda, Richard Jr., Ruben, Dominic, Robert Jr., R.J., and Kristin; one great-grandson, Jonah, and childhood friends, Dave Baton and Lonnie Osdale.

Burial was at Kinross Township Lakeview Cemetery Tuesday, November 4.
