Rexton-Garnet

Old man winter came knocking on our doors with cold temperatures this past weekend. We didn't let him all the way in, and he left, promising he would be back. It will be sooner rather than later. Congratulations to district volleyball champions, the Engadine Lady Eagles, who will face Baraga Tuesday evening, November 11, at Bark River Harris in the regional playoffs. We wish them the best of luck as they journey to the finals.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Engadine will host the annual Candles and Carols concert Sunday, December 7. Practice continues each Sunday afternoon leading up to the concert.

If you are participating in the Shoebox Ministry, which is a shoebox filled with items for children for Christmas, they are to be dropped off at the Rexton Mennonite Church by Sunday, November 16, in preparation to be sent to countries around the world. Bonnie Bodi, who presented the idea a few years ago, has made this a worthwhile endeavor on behalf of the church. At the home of Howard Dauphin these past few weeks were his daughter, Debbie Nichols, and granddaughter, Darcy, of Westland, and Howard's "kid brother," Donald, of St. Clair Shores.

Theresa, daughter of Bill Darknell, was visiting her father over the weekend. Jerry Derusha, along with his brother, Leon, are doing some carpentry work for their father, Ray, at his home. As our country stops to thank our veterans, past and those currently serving, remember Mitch Darknell, who is serving in Iraq. Yvonne Maison enjoyed an overnight visit with her daughter, Jaimie, who is studying at Northern Michigan University in Marquette. The VFW Ladies Auxiliary will host a hunter's dinner Saturday, November 15, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the VFW Hall in Engadine. As whitetail season begins Saturday, November 15, remember the deer will be moving and take extra care while driving. You don't want to be the one who gets the biggest buck - by car. Happy birthday wishes to my nephew, Mark Livermore, and sister-in-law, Barb Livermore, November 11, my nephew, Chris Maison, November 12, my dear friend and neighbor, Rosie Prater, November 13, Bernice Hood November 14, and our across-the-track neighbor, Bud Wege November 16.

Brevort

Don't you just love it? We can have summer one day, and the very next day have winter. We took advantage of the warm temperatures and started to put up the Christmas decorations.

I didn't actually get my Christmas tree up, but thought about all my favorites ornaments I have packed away, one being a mohair angel that has lasted many years. Brad Ledy gave it to me when he was in the first grade at Gros Cap School. Brad and his wife, Amanda, live in Troy, and have two little girls, Evalyn and Charlotte. Mary Carney and Warren

Cunningham recently returned from a three-week trip to Maine, Florida, and Canada. Mary usually celebrates her birthday in Maine, but this year was in Florida, at a book sale. She and Warren also went to the Shaker Museum in western Maine. Joe and Sharon Chalmers have been ill with colds this week, as have many other villagers. It is tedious. Mary Ann First is soaking a deer skull in peroxide to remove all of the remaining flesh. The finished product will be a wall hanging. Happy 25th wedding anniversary to Sean and Janice O'Boyle. Friends and family gathered at the O'Boyle home this past weekend to celebrate the event. Joe Chalmers called on the Rogers Farm this past week, only to be informed by Levi that the farm is closed; however, they still have eggs. Anne Anderson had spent more than a week at the family home in Brevort. She harvested apples and canned sauce, butter, and apple pie filling. She became ill and was treated at Mackinac Straits Hospital, ending up with a stay for observation. Her husband, Bill, and son, Eric, came from Minnesota to drive her home to Bemidji. The final diagnosis was Bell's palsy, and she is recovering. Andy Green of New Hudson, Glen Wiseman of South Lyon, and Fred Green of Dearborn were at the Green family cottage, installing kitchen cupboards and appliances this past weekend. The television this Monday morning is showing snow warnings and advisories for our area. It's that time of the year when you want to check the weather before venturing out on the highways.
