

Reavie Credited for Show Success

Auto Show: From page 13

Kentucky, through Wisconsin and on to the St. Ignace show. Mayor Grondin also made a brief statement at the awards ceremony, recognizing show organizer Ed Reavie for all his work in making the auto show a reality for 34 years. "He's the reason, along with all of you, that this is a success," he said to the crowd.

Mayors Paul Grondin and Margaret Doud in the Down Memory Lane parade.

John Schneider, of "Dukes of Hazzard" fame, rides in a replica of the "General Lee," a car featured on the 80s TV series. Driving the bright orange 1969 Dodge Charger is the owner, Brian Downing of Lincoln Park.

David Swope of St. Ignace drives his 95-year-old grandfather, Bob Gregg, atop his 1920 Chevrolet Model-T Fire Truck during the parade Friday.

A blue 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air, owned by "Hot Rod Bob" Fulkerson of Oxford, won the Participants Choice for Best Modified award in Saturday's show. (Photograph by Joseph Joliet)

This black 1956 Chevrolet convertible, owned by Donald Lindsay of Columbus, won the Best Convertible award. (Photograph by Joseph Joliet)

A color guard from the U.S. Coast Guard station marches past crowds of onlookers on State Street Friday during the Down Memory Lane parade.

Complete Car Show Judging Results Will Be Published in an Upcoming Issue of The St. Ignace News.

Car Show Guest of Honor Ken Gross glides past St. Ignace's Wawatam Lighthouse in the parade Friday evening, driven by car show guest Mike Stowe.

Cars line up along State Street during the Down Memory Lane parade Friday, June 26. Show vehicles, floats, and other parade participants started their journey through downtown St. Ignace at 7 p.m. The parade lasted about 90 minutes.