Mackinaw Woman's Club Will Host Antique Show, Sale August 4

The Mackinaw Woman's Club in Mackinaw City is hosting its 40th Annual Antique Show and Sale Tuesday, August 4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Mackinaw High School gymnasium, 600 West Central Avenue. Admission is $2 for all day. Children 10 and younger are admitted free.

Luncheon will be available all day.

This is the second of their two major annual fundraisers for 2009, the first having been the club's eighth annual Strawberry Social Saturday, July 4, at which they sold 379 strawberry and ice cream shortcakes from the Marina Lawn.

This year's Antique Show and Sale will feature antiques from throughout the world, including jewelry, postcards, home furnishings, glassware, silver, tools, lamps, china, pottery, pictures, stoneware, toys, and kitchenware.

The Woman's Club was created in 1914 to promote literary, educational, and philanthropic work.

Registration for North County Trail Bridge Walk, Camping Rally Is August 7

The Hiawatha Shore-to-Shore North Country Trail Chapter will host a camping rally for the Mackinac Bridge walk Friday, September 4, through Tuesday, September 8, at the old Mackinac County fairgrounds in Moran. The rally is open to all North Country Scenic Trail Chapter Members and supporters of the North Country Scenic Trail and is designed to promote the trail and the bridge as a section of the trail.

Day hikes, a community hot dog roast, and, possibly, a midnight hike are planned.

Registration is required, with information available from Kay Kujawa at (989) 350-2826 or on the Hiawatha Shore-to-Shore Web site.
