Jennifer Besteman (left) of Rudyard, a volunteer services assistant for VitalCare Hospice, met with long distance walker Clayton Klein in Trout Lake Saturday, September 5. Mr. Klein, 90, of Fowlerville, is walking 420 miles to raise awareness for hospice. He began his trek Friday, September 4, from Paradise, walked across the Mackinac Bridge with thousands of others on Labor Day, Monday, September 7, and is scheduled to complete his walk at the Ohio border Monday, September 28. This year's homecoming court at Rudyard included freshmen Adam Graber and Tynecia Sistrunk, sophomores Dustin Switzer and Lindsey Davis, juniors Logan McMillan and Eryn Reed, and seniors Ron Coffey, Lakota Captain, Davin Salo, Emily Jeffreys, Ricky Gere, Lindsie LaPointe, Brett Van-Sloten, JC Rizzo, Arik Hesselink, and Liz Schroeder.

Homecoming was a wonderful night, even for the parents. The sponsors were walked to the center of the track and had their dreams, future plans, favorite candy, and motto announced. The result ended with Lakota Captain and Ron Coffey being crowned queen and king of this year's homecoming. The game also was a success as the football team ended up winning, 39 to 16. A dance took place Saturday night where everyone was invited to dance the night away.

I loved homecoming week when I went to school. I came from a school of about 1,200 teenagers and the best part of homecoming was the pep rally before the big football game. Freshman and juniors sat on one side and sophomores and seniors sat on the other side and we would do our chants to see who was the loudest.

Dorothy Johnson was promoted officially to Deputy Supervisor of Kinross. She will work under Larry Palma, the supervisor of Kinross Township. Her duties will include being Mr. Palma's assistant in all matters, duties of the supervisor when he is unavailable to do them, and taking care of administrative duties. Congratulations Dorothy.

Also, don't forget about the free give away of clothes. Coats, gloves, at the Orlooes in Kinross Saturday September 26. They are bringing 40 boxes of clothes up for anyone who is in need and will not be leaving until all of it is gone.

Rudyard will be at St. Ignace Friday, September 25, under the lights. There will also be a volleyball game at St. Ignace Saturday at 9 a.m. It would be wonderful to have a great turnout for games.

We are basking in the warmth and sunshine of this September and, too soon, it will end.

With my sisters-in-law Martha Sheppard of Manistique, Evelyn Burgess of Engadine, and Louella Snow, I traveled to Battle Creek to attend the wedding of my nephew, Don Berry, and his new bride, Lynn. While there we chanced upon a large retail store and, lo and behold, there were Christmas trees with lights twinkling and carols playing. I thought the calendar had really gone into fast forward mode. It's way too soon.

It's time to dig pink. The Engadine and Newberry girls volleyball teams will compete Thursday, October 8, at 6 p.m. at the Engadine High School gymnasium for a fundraiser for breast cancer awareness. There will be special activities, raffles, and information to support the females in our lives. This activity is sponsored by Naubinway Family Health Care Clinic, Mackinac Straits Health Care System, and Helen Newberry Joy Hospital. You are asked to come in pink and help support this ongoing battle.

The semi-annual missionary conference, "Hold the Rope 09," will be Friday, September 25, at 6 p.m., Saturday, September 26, at 7 p.m., and Sunday, September 27, at 9 a.m. Guest speakers will be Stan and Marilyn Troyer and Wendell and Lila Graber.

Continued get well wishes to Al and Nadine Garavaglia's granddaughter, who was hospitalized this past week.

Birthday wishes to friend and co-worker, Mary Ann Mullins, September 20, Candy Aldrich, Mary Hart, and Ann Cross September 21, Wilda Frederick September 22, Clarence Bumpus down Epoufette way September 25, Alexandria Prater and Mary Formolo September 26, and Kylee Baker, granddaughter of Terry and Phyllis Gouza, September 27.

Anniversary wishes to Jack and Janet Tippett September 22.

Rudyard marching band performs in the homecoming parade Friday, September 18.
