

Local Communities Enjoy Halloween Fun

HALLELUJAH NIGHT, ST. IGNACE: More than 120 children attended the sixth annual Hallelujah Night at St. Ignace Middle School Saturday, October 31. St. Ignace churches organize the party as an alternative to trick-or-treating, providing another way for children to enjoy Halloween.

MACKINAW CITY: Terralyn Tarrant carefully winds tissue paper around Tabatha Peariso during the Mummy Wrap-Up game Friday, October 30. Both girls enjoyed the Halloween game in Christy Beauchamp's third grade class at Mackinaw City Public Schools.

GROS CAP SCHOOL: Children of Gros Cap School march around the building in their costumes during a Halloween parade Friday, October 30.

ST. IGNACE (BELOW): Students (from left) Ryan Litzner, Cooper Johnston, and Brandon Oja, dressed as Mexican cheese, a chick magnet, and Pac-Man, respectively, pose for a photograph during the school's Halloween parade.

ST. IGNACE (AT LEFT): Elementary principal Kari Visnaw and Elizabeth Colegrove, dressed as Snow White, lead the parade for the developmental kindergarden class during the Halloween parade at St. Ignace schools Friday, October 30. Elementary and middle school students participated and parents came to school to see the little ones in costume.

get a two-pound bag of candy if they listened to three Bible stories, "The Lost Sheep," "The Lost Coin," and "The Prodigal Son," as told by event volunteers.

Children are discouraged from wearing scary and gory costumes at the annual party, Pastor Williams said, because the event is more about having fun than scaring others.

"The kids deserve to have a good Halloween," he said. "Halloween's supposed to be fun."
