

Winkelman Named St. Ignace Kiwanian of Year

Marvin Winkelman, 91, was named Kiwanian of the Year at an annual dinner of the St. Ignace Kiwanis Club Tuesday, November 10. Mr. Winkelman, a member of the club for 58 years, was recognized for his faithful attendance at every meeting and club event and for his longtime service.

Mr. Winkelman is one of the two remaining charter members of the Kiwanis Club, with Prentiss "Moie" Brown, Jr. Earlier this year, Mr. Winkelman was also honored for 70 years of service to the St. Ignace Masonic Lodge. A longtime St. Ignace businessman, he has been active in many community causes and civic organizations.

"No matter what his health is, he's always there, and he is just so giving," said Kiwanis Club treasurer Lori Strich.

Also in attendance was longtime club member Larry Rubin, 96.

Ms. Strich earned the Kiwanis Club Spark Plug Award. The attendance award was shared by Janet Peterson and Mr. Brown.

Jim Balfour earned the President's Award for his willingness to take over new projects as people have retired from them or moved away.

David Garland, Division 222 Lieutenant Governor for Kiwanis Club, installed this year's slate of officers at the banquet at Fred's Pub in St. Ignace. Mike Lane is president of the club, John Monville is vice president, Lori Strich is treasurer, and Janet Peterson and Kathy McLeod are secretaries.

Fred Feleppa, Ernie Krause, Jean Massaway, Jennifer McGraw, Darcy McLean, John Ruegg, and Dave Schmidt serve on the board of directors.

The club presented $566.50 raised through a whitefish dinner to the school band program for new uniforms. Club members contribute Happy Dollars at meetings throughout the year, and this year $192 in collections will be donated to Legacy House..

Head Start Visits Fort DeBuade Museum

Fort de Buade Museum Director Judi Engle shows a tour group from Sault Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians Head Start program how an ancient sharpening wheel works during a field trip to the St. Ignace museum. The museum, which officially closed September 30, opened its doors just for the students Friday, October 23.

Crafts, Cookies To Be Offered at Les Cheneaux Bazaar

Artisans selling handmade soaps, maple syrup products, handmade baskets, and more will set up shop for a bazaar at Les Cheneaux Community Schools in Cedarville Saturday, November 28, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The Holiday Bazaar is hosted by the Les Cheneaux Preschool and is its major fundraiser. The bazaar draws craftsmen from Cedarville and Hessel and from Pickford, Drummond Island, Sault Ste. Marie, and St. Ignace. This year the bazaar has more than 40 registrants.

Preschool parents will prepare about 1,000 cookies to be sold during the bazaar. Each parent bakes 12 dozen of the snacks, said Amy Kohlmann, vice president of the Les Cheneaux Preschool Board, and the sale is so popular some visitors drop by solely for a plate of cookies. A plate of one dozen cookies costs $3.50. Soups, pizza, and hot dogs will also be sold.

Bundles of goods will be raffled off containing items and products donated by local businesses. Raffle tickets cost $1 each.

The Holiday Bazaar has been conducted for more than 30 years, Mrs. Kohlmann said, and began with the First Union Church. The preschool later picked it up, and held it at the community center. The bazaar became so large that some vendors had to be turned away because of lack of space, she said. The event was finally moved to the school, providing the needed space.
