

Les Cheneaux Community Celebrates Christmas

Amy Sprague of Cedarville receives a helping of pancakes and sausage from Bill Kish (left) and Chuck Denoyer of the Les Cheneaux Lions Club during the Cedar Cove Assisted Living breakfast with Santa. Mrs. Sprague brought her son, Drew, along, and he received a wind-up robot from Santa Saturday, December 5.

Children sing Christmas carols at the Les Cheneaux community Christmas party in Cedarville Sunday, December 6. Along with cookies, candy, and other treats, children were given free toys and some adults received turkeys during a raffle taking place throughout the party.

Sadie Nye of Cedarville places a bid during the Les Cheneaux Historical Museum's Christmas tree silent auction Saturday, December 5. Many of the trees are decorated with an array of handmade ornaments. The annual auction is a fundraiser for the museum.

At left: Phil Quinn and Julie Smith of First Union Church of Cedarville draw and announce numbers for a toy and turkey raffle during the Les Cheneaux community Christmas party. Party-goers enjoyed treats and carols such as "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and "Here Comes Santa Claus."

Serving you, it's what we do

A vital part of success in any business endeavor is having and knowing a clear statement of purpose; YOU have to know where you're heading. Our purpose, our only purpose, is to serve YOU... with convenient products to help your money grow, with friendly service people who give their all for YOU, and an attitude that says we're right here just for YOU. We know the basis of our success is helping YOU.

It's all about YOU

Open your account today by stopping at one of our 7 local banking offices!

"We're Right Here at Home"

Branch Offices at:
NORTH BAY & MORAN TOWNSHIP, ST. IGNACE
CEDARVILLE • MACKINAC ISLAND
NAUBINWAY • NEWBERRY

Member FDIC

132 N. State St. • Ph. (906) 643-6800
P.O. Box 187 • St. Ignace, MI 49781

Visit us online at www.fnbsi.com

Trust the Eastern Upper Peninsula's oldest community bank, celebrating 121 years of continuous service to the area.

Member FDIC

The Best Gift? Stress-Free Holidays

As the hustle and bustle of Christmas nears, are you overwhelmed by the expense of the holidays and the obligations that demand your time?

Have you experienced a loss of a loved one, making the holidays particularly lonely this year?

The best gift for you and the ones you love might be a stress-free holiday.

If you feel overwhelmed or need extra help managing your emotions now or throughout the year, Blue Water Behavioral Health can help. Our team of compassionate specialists can help you cope and discover ways to return the joy to your holiday season.

To schedule an appointment for outpatient therapeutic counseling, call us at (906) 635-2969.

Blue Water Behavioral Health
War Memorial Hospital Outpatient Psychiatric Services

Exceptional Care. Centered Around You.